ARTIST-OF-THE-YEAR RECITAL BY VAUGHN WATSON COMING IN JUNE

Our Artist-of-the-Year Vaughn Watson will be presenting his recital on June 25 at 3 p.m. at Our Lady of Seven Dolors Catholic Church on Washington Street in Fair Haven. His program will include works by J. S. Bach, Cesar Franck, Eugene Gigout, Gabriel Pierne and others on the 1856 E. & G. G. Hook, 2/22, refurbished by Steven Russell in 2004. The organ makes a grand sound in the reverberant acoustics of the church. This event will be followed by the Vermont AGO Chapter's Annual Meeting and a music exchange. Please bring any music you would like to contribute to this effort and pick up some new-to-you music to take home.

Directions to the church:

From the Northwest: Take Route 7 South to Vergennes, then merge with Vermont 22a, heading South to Fair Haven. Our Lady of Seven Dolors is located on the right side of Washington Street (VT Route 22a), about 3/4 of a mile, south of the intersection of Route 4. There is a parking lot, right before the church building.

From the Northeast: Take Route 91 South to the exit for Route 4. Head West on Route 4, all the way to VT Route 22a. Head South on 22a for about 3/4 of a mile to the church.

From the Southeast: Take Route 91 North to the exit for Route 4, and follow directions above.

From the Southwest: Take either Vermont Route 30 or Route 7, North to Route 4. Head West on Route 4 and then take VT Route 22a South for about 3/4 of a mile to the church.

This is a fine occasion to visit a part of our state that, for many of us, is not on our normal travels and to hear an organ that many of us have not seen. All are welcome, and you are invited to bring other organists and friends with you.

HAPPY 80TH BIRTHDAY JOHN WEAVER!

Several Vermont AGO members and friends gathered at the Stowe Community Church on May 20 to honor John Weaver and celebrate with him his 80th birthday. A member's recital began the event with Adam Schneider, Lynnette Combs, and Karen Miller playing. Marianne Weaver also played John's Rhapsody for flute and organ with Lynnette offering the organ part. John shares with us that this work was written the year after they were married, thus an early work of his. All were invited downstairs for refreshments and a special birthday cake. A long receiving line allowed everyone to speak with John and share memories. Many thanks to all who helped make this event so successful. Happy Birthday, John!

CHAPTER NOTES

Our Chapter mourns the loss of Carol Emerson Jones who passed away unexpectedly on May 4, 2017 at the age of 91. She was a long-time, avid supporter of our Chapter.

To give away -- a large box of The Organist's Companion, the Leupold serial music publication. Call Marilyn Polson, (802) 685-7725. Marilyn will also bring this collection to the music exchange at the recital - Annual Meeting on June 25.

A NOTE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE BOARD

We are delighted with the response to the amendments the Executive Board has proposed. Presently we have 31 votes in favor. We have a membership of about 43 and would love to have just a few more votes. If you have forgotten to send you vote to Marilyn Polson, please do so before the end of June. The Executive Board thanks everyone who has responded and hopes to hear from just a few more of you.

COMING EVENTS

An organ concert is being offered by Floridian David Clyde Morse, brother of Vermont organist Steve Morse, on the 1868 William Nutting, Jr. organ at the United Federated Church, 2426 VT-14 in Williamstown, Vermont on June 4 at 3 p.m. This event is being presented on the 50th anniversary of David's first Sunday as a church organist. Now living in Florida, he will come back to that original organ in Vermont to musically and verbally say "thank you" to the hundreds of people who have been a part of his musical and ministerial journey. Please come!! This event is FREE and open to the public.

The Executive Committee of St. John's Episcopal Church in East Poultney, Vermont shares its plans for worship services on Saturdays during the summer months. All services will begin at 4:00 p.m. Dr. James Cassarino, Director of the Vocal, Instrumental and Welsh Heritage programs at Green Mountain College will bring the fine old organ to life at each service. The services planned are:

REGISTER FOR THE MONTREAL FESTIVAL, 2017 HAPPENING THIS JULY 2-7 IN MONTREAL, CANADA

The Montreal Festival is the first collaborative effort between the Royal Canadian College of Organists, the Canadian International Organ Competition, and the American Guild of Organists (Northeast Region). The Festival officially begins on Sunday, July 2nd and ends on Thursday, July 6th. However, the Festival also offers a Pre-Convention day on Saturday July 1st and a Post-Convention Day on Friday, July 7th. Attendees have the option of registering for one or both of these days and a combination of days that best suit you. Those living in Vermont are geographically close to Montreal and are encouraged to attend.

Please remember the 25% discount on the exchange rate as the cost is listed in Canadian dollars. Our Chapter Registrar, Esther Nui, together with several members of various Chapters in the Northeast Region, have been working on the Steering Committee for this convention for the past 2.5 years. Registration is provided online but if you wish to mail in your registration form and not deal with the internet, please email Esther at esthernui@gmail.com.

The convention offers several workshops in addition to organ performances. Attendees should note that the Montreal Jazz Festival is also happening during the same week and on Wednesday, July 5th, there will be a concert in the Symphony Hall featuring the Symphony Hall organist-in-residence, Jean-Willy Kunz and the Montreal Jazz Festival. If you have not seen or heard the organ in the Symphony Hall, you are in for a spectacular treat.

The Festival opens with a performance by Nathan Laube in Oratoire Saint Joseph at 3:30 p.m., and the opening evening concert features the Organized Crime Duo (Sarah Svendsen and Rachel Mahon) and Melanie Barney with Buzz Brass Ensemble in the Church of St. Andrew and Saint Paul.

Cherry Rhodes plays at 3 p.m. in Saints-Anges, Lachine on July 4th at the Cathedral of Mary, Queen of the World, and the King's College, London choir will provide the Evensong. Other performers are Frederico Andreoni, Hans-Ola Ericsson, Katelyn Emerson, John Grew, Nicholas Capozzoli and Monica Czausz, Mireille Lagace, Jean-Baptiste Rodin, Christian Lane, the Duo Majoya and Les Souls D'Amour.

Some of these performers will also be leading workshops. The workshops are too numerous to list individually but a few that might be of interest to you are: a workshop entitled Bringing the organ into the classroom by Ray Cornils; another entitled Choral Reading for small choirs by Steve Young; another entitled Modern choral techniques by a Roomful of Teeth, and another entitled Creative approaches to using the small organ by Alice Chriss.

Most of the Festival will happen in downtown Montreal itself with bus travel scheduled only for July 4th. Attendees are encouraged to download a mobile app called Montreal Organ Festival from the App Store on your mobile device. This app will provide you with all the information you need: schedule, performers, and organ specifications besides ways to get around in Montreal during the Festival plus a method of communicating with other attendees.

Access the Online Registration process via the link:
www.montrealorganfestival.org. or contact esthernui@gmail.com for a form you can print out and mail. Those under the age of 30 wishing to attend the Convention are encouraged to apply for Scholarships.

OGONTZ CHORAL WORKSHOP THIS SUMMER IN LYMAN, NEW HAMPSHIRE

The 28th annual Ogontz Choral Workshop, Sunday July 23 to Saturday, July 29, offers extraordinary opportunities for singers, church musicians, and choral conductors to work on choral repertoire with some of the world's leading choral directors. This year's participants will spend a week at Ogontz Camp, a beautiful retreat in Lyman, New Hampshire, delving into Edward Elgar's The Dream of Gerontius with renowned British choral conductor David Hill, director of the UK's BBC Singers and The Bach Choir, as well as Yale University's Schola Cantorum. Hill will also lead singers through an exploration of European Sacred Music (Oxford Choral Classics), an anthology of over 50 choral gems from the last five centuries, edited by John Rutter. David will also offer a Conductor's Seminar in which participants can receive mentoring in directing singers. Mezzo-soprano Paula Rockwell of Acadia University, Nova Scotia, will lead master classes and sessions in vocal technique.

Students enrolled in college are eligible for a special rate. Graduate credit can be arranged through the University of Rhode Island. Full details and registration are available at ogontzarts.com. Questions? Contact Claire Mead at (215) 962-2998 or claire@ogontzarts.com.
